

Eagle Point Elementary School Presents:
One School, One Book
The Trumpet of the Swan by E.B. White

One School, One Book is a program designed to create a shared reading experience within a single elementary school community. Every student in the elementary school will read that book over the course of 4-5 weeks. Activities done at school and at home promote and enrich the shared reading experience. Activities, a reading calendar, links to online audio chapters, and chapter notes will be sent home with each student, so families can also participate in this experience. The culmination of the book will coincide with our Annual Spring Family Literacy Night on May 17th.

This program encourages reading together and inspires participation in a shared literary experience. Families, teachers, and students will come together on Literacy Night for a celebration surrounding the themes in the story.

We have selected a title that can be followed and understood and enjoyed by younger students, but will still captivate and stimulate older children. This year we have chosen to read The Trumpet of the Swan by E.B. White, who also wrote Charlotte's Web and Stuart Little. This is a wonderful story about friendship and overcoming adversity.

“When a whole school reads a book, there’s a lot to talk about.”

With your help, we can build and strengthen the Eagle Point Community of Readers.

☺ Thank you!
